Determination of Patent Term Extension under 35 U.S.C. 154 (b) (application filed after June 7, 1995 but prior to May 29, 2000)

The patent term extension is 0 days. Any patent to issue from the above identified application will include an indication of the 0 day extension on the front page.

If a continued prosecution application (CPA) was filed in the above-identified application, the filing date that determines patent term extension is the filing date of the most recent CPA.

Applicant will be able to obtain more detailed information by accessing the Patent Application Information Retrieval (PAIR) system. (<http://pair.uspto.gov>)

Any questions regarding the patent term extension or adjustment determination should be directed to the Office of Patent Legal Administration at (703)305-1383.

Notice of Fee Increase on January 1, 2003

If a reply to a "Notice of Allowance and Fee(s) Due" is filed in the Office on or after January 1, 2003, then the amount due will be higher than that set forth in the "Notice of Allowance and Fee(s) Due" since there will be an increase in fees effective on January 1, 2003. See Revision of Patent and Trademark Fees for Fiscal Year 2003; Final Rule, 67 Fed. Reg. 70847, 70849 (November 27, 2002).

The current fee schedule is accessible from: <http://www.uspto.gov/main/howtofees.htm>.

If the issue fee paid is the amount shown on the "Notice of Allowance and Fee(s) Due," but not the correct amount in view of the fee increase, a "Notice to Pay Balance of Issue Fee" will be mailed to applicant. In order to avoid processing delays associated with mailing of a "Notice to Pay Balance of Issue Fee," if the response to the Notice of Allowance and Fee(s) due form is to be filed on or after January 1, 2003 (or mailed with a certificate of mailing on or after January 1, 2003), the issue fee paid should be the fee that is required at the time the fee is paid. If the issue fee was previously paid, and the response to the "Notice of Allowance and Fee(s) Due" includes a request to apply a previously-paid issue fee to the issue fee now due, then the difference between the issue fee amount at the time the response is filed and the previously paid issue fee should be paid. See Manual of Patent Examining Procedure, Section 1308.01 (Eighth Edition, August 2001).

Questions relating to issue and publication fee payments should be directed to the Customer Service Center of the Office of Patent Publication at (703) 305-8283.

DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

The declarations filed on 16 July 2002 and 21 November 2002 under 37 CFR 1.131 are sufficient to overcome the Teicher reference.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 75-110 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The overall claimed combination of a computer-based method for transferring funds from a bank or credit card account of a fund depositor to third party dependents, comprising creating a bank or credit card account for debit or credit card access by a third party financially dependent upon a fund depositor, from which funds may be transferred at the request of said third party as a cash withdrawal or payment for goods or services purchased by said third party, wherein said third party account is linked to a bank or credit card account of said fund depositor; periodically and automatically transferring funds into said third party account from said fund depositor account in response to command instructions from said fund depositor; storing information on fund transferees and corresponding payment amounts for said third party account; and supplying to said fund depositor through an output device said information on fund transferees and corresponding payment amounts for said third party account is neither anticipated nor rendered obvious by the prior art.

The prior art (Lawlor et al.) discloses a computerized method for periodic and automatic bill payment to creditors out of existing accounts but does not disclose transferring funds to an account established for a dependent of the fund depositor and in which the third party account is first created and then linked to a fund depositor's account. Lawlor links fund depositor accounts to the existing accounts of creditors. The creditor by means of a debit or credit card does also not access these accounts, nor are cash withdrawals made by the creditor for goods and services paid for by the creditor from the account into which the bill payment is made.

The prior art (Teicher) discloses a retail unit for purchase of a customer having an electronic wallet but does not disclose the use of the debit/credit card system as is disclosed in the instant.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
